

Edward C. Baker, apprentice petty officer second class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis W. Baker of 20622 Halldale Ave., graduated May 15 from Recruit Training at the Naval Training Center, San Diego. Apprentice petty officers are chosen from the ranks of the seaman recruits to assist Company Commanders. The selection is based on individual aptitude and leadership qualities.

George E. Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Turner of 1409 W. 215th St., Torrance, Calif., graduated from recruit training May 15 at the Naval Training Center, San Diego, Calif.

The graduation exercises, marking the end of nine weeks of "boot camp," included a full dress parade and review before military officials and civilian dignitaries.

Four Army men from Torrance are participating with the 4th Infantry Division, a major Strategic Army Corps (STRAC) unit, in Exercise Dry Hills at the Yakima Firing Center in Washington.

In nine weeks of instruction, the "raw recruit" is developed into a Navy Bluejacket, ready for duty with the fleet.

This large-scale maneuver, designed to provide unit and individual training with weapons and in tactics of modern warfare, involves 18,000 soldiers from military posts throughout the U. S.

Marvin L. Gilpin, hospitalman, U. S. navy, and son of Louis A. Gilpin of 1614 Laurette St., was graduated from the Neuropsychiatric Technician School at the U. S. Naval Hospital, Oakland, May 8. He will remain at the Oakland hospital for duty. Before entering the service, Gilpin attended San Pedro High School.

Sergeant First Class Clinton L. Verhaar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter A. Verhaar, 5500 Torrance Blvd., is regularly assigned as a squad leader in Company D of the division's 12th Infantry at Fort Lewis, Wash. He entered the Army in 1945. Sergeant Verhaar attended Inglewood High School. His wife, Florence, lives in Tacoma, Wash.

Harry A. Moore, aviation boatswain's mate second class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond D. Havlis, of 25925 Oak St., Lomita is serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Essex operating with the Atlantic Fleet.

Albert Lucero, fireman, USN, of 2013 W. 250th, Lomita, serving aboard the ammunition ship USS Vesuvius, returned May 10 to the United States after six months in the Western Pacific. Returning to his home yard in San Francisco, the Vesuvius travelled more than 16,000 miles on its cruise and visited such ports as Japan, Philippine Islands, Okinawa, and Hong Kong.

William S. McConnell, air controlman airman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. McConnell of 1748 Gramercy Ave., is serving on the staff of the Commander of Fleet Air Wing Three at the Naval Air Station, Brunswick, Maine.

Pvt. Hugh R. Mitchell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh F. Mitchell, 1417 W. 220th St., is regularly assigned as a rifleman in Company C of the division's 47th Infantry at Fort Lewis. Mitchell entered the Army in August, 1958, and completed basic combat training at Fort Ord, Calif. The 23-year-old soldier is a 1953 graduate of Narbonne High School, Lomita. Before entering the Army, he was employed by American

He reported to Brunswick May 1 from the attack aircraft carrier USS Randolph. Before entering the Navy in May, 1958, McConnell attended Interamerican University in San German, Puerto Rico, and was employed by Raymond Construction in San Juan.

George Turner, fireman apprentice, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Turner, 1409 W. 215th St., was graduated from boot training at San Diego May 15. He is on leave until June 1, and then will be sent to Hawaii for 18 months duty.
